

Caliper

Caliper is thickness expressed as points in the English system. A point is .001 inch. In the metric system, caliper is expressed in microns. There is a TAPPI standard measuring procedure for caliper, and unless otherwise stated, caliper measurements are the result of this measuring procedure. Combined board caliper is the result of measuring the thickness of the combined product using the TAPPI procedure.

